"A noble and powerful figure effortlessly gliding in the air, owning the sky, high above reality... This is the Hawk of Achill, inspired by an ancient Celtic myth, a guide leading to love for man and nature, a symbol of enlightenment, creativity, truth and experience connecting us to the spiritual world..."

Daniele Basso - Volterra, September 2019

Daniele Basso's works remind us of the spiritual side of man, are intuitive symbols that take us through increasingly higher levels of awareness, leading to a more enlightened individual and collective identity.
